SECTION 2: BACKGROUND INFORMATION

2.1 Founded in 1872, Concord University is a four-year public liberal arts university and part of the West Virginia Higher Education System.

2.2 There are currently approximately 1,800 students enrolled and approximately 250 faculty and staff.

2.3 The mission of Concord University is to provide quality, liberal arts-based education, to foster scholarly and creative activities, and to serve the regional community.

Concord University provides rigorous programs, primarily at the baccalaureate level, which prepare students to pursue various graduate study and career options and to assume leadership and professional roles in a multicultural society. In keeping with its tradition of service to the region, the University will offer a limited number of carefully selected graduate degrees. While we incorporate a variety of educational methodologies/technologies, our size and the caring dedication of our faculty, staff and administration are the principal assurances of a quality educational opportunity at Concord University.

As a learning community, Concord University is committed to furthering knowledge through professional development activities and programs, through research, and through the application, publication, and appreciation of scholarly efforts.

The primary purpose of Concord’s mission is academic; however, the service the University provides to its state and region goes beyond the classroom. Concord University contributes to the quality of cultural and economic in southern West Virginia through collaboration with both public and private organizations and agencies and through extension of its support and assistance into the region it serves.
